CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP®

The CFP® certification is obtained by completing an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that the CFP® Board's studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, a comprehensive certification exam and agreeing to be bound by the CFP® board's Standard of Professional Conduct. As a prerequisite, the individual must have a Bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or foreign university equivalent) and have at least 3 years of full time financial planning experience (or equivalent measured at 2,000 hours per year). This designation requires 30 hours of continuing education every 2 years and renewing an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct.

CERTIFIED TRUST AND FIDUCIARY ADVISOR (CTFA)

The Certified Trust and Fiduciary Advisor (CTFA) designation is a professional certification for financial professionals specializing in fiduciary and trust services. Awarded by the American Bankers Association (ABA), it signifies that an individual has demonstrated expertise in areas like trust administration, estate planning, investment management, and fiduciary responsibility. Achieving the CTFA requires a combination of experience, education, passing a comprehensive exam, and adhering to a code of ethics, with ongoing continuing education requirements to maintain the certification.
